

16 May 2011
Gaza- Palestine.

The European Commissioner for International Cooperation, Humanitarian Aid, and Crisis Response visits Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children

On behalf of Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children, Sharhabeel Al Za'eem, ASDC Chairman, and Naim Kabaja, ASDC Director, received in an official welcoming Ms. Kristalina Georgieva, the European Commissioner for International Cooperation, Humanitarian Aid, and Crisis Response, and Mr. Christian Berger, the EU representative in the Palestinian Territories.

During the visit, Mrs. Georgieva paid a special visit to Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children departments, particularly the Kindergarten, where she was impressed by the children and the place, and the Vocational Training and Crafts Production Unit including its section: Embroidery, Sewing, Painting on Wood, Pottery, Carpentry, Rug and Fabric Weaving, and the Atfaluna Crafts Shop where she praised the accurate work of the deaf men and women.

Mr. Al Za'eem expressed his happiness towards this visit: "We deeply thank Ms. Georgieva for visiting us and for the generous funding and continuous support of the EU to Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children through its German partner CBM for years now."

"The European Union plays a significant role in providing the much-needed services to the hearing disabled and marginalized people in the Gaza strip, thus, we would like to express our gratitude for this visit and the continues support." Naim Kabaja, ASDC Director said.

Atfaluna society for deaf children is a non-profit society established in the Gaza strip in 1992. Its aim is to improve the quality of life of deaf children and adults and help them reach their full potential by providing quality education, health care, social services, and work opportunities.

For more information, please contact:
Atfaluna Society for Deaf Children
Email: public-relations@atfaluna.net
Telefaxes: 972-8-2828495 or 2865468